

Help Stop Program

Abuse!

In order to help serve as many eligible participants as possible, Montana WIC prohibits abuse of program benefits and foods.

WIC participants agree to adhere to the rights and responsibilities of the program, including policies prohibiting the sale of WIC benefits such as formula and baby food. Violation of WIC policies can result in disqualification from the program.

Help Stop Program

Abuse!

In order to help serve as many eligible participants as possible, Montana WIC prohibits abuse of program benefits and foods.

WIC participants agree to adhere to the rights and responsibilities of the program, including policies prohibiting the sale of WIC benefits such as formula and baby food. Violation of WIC policies can result in disqualification from the program.

Help Stop Program

Abuse!

In order to help serve as many eligible participants as possible, Montana WIC prohibits abuse of program benefits and foods.

WIC participants agree to adhere to the rights and responsibilities of the program, including policies prohibiting the sale of WIC benefits such as formula and baby food. Violation of WIC policies can result in disqualification from the program.

